DECEW: 414 NEW: 251 QUEENSTON: 237 VILLAGE: 539

TOTAL POPULATION: 1441

Bye Mom....Bye Dad!

On Monday, September 5, 1995 some of us moved into our new home and some of us moved back home. At Brock, living in residence is an experience in itself. Your room mates, floor mates, house mates and bathroom mates (AKA can mates!) become your friends, neighbours and family.

AND THE CROWD GOES WILD!

Heave...Ho...Heave...Ho...

It was a victorious day for Schickluna House when the Devils won the Tug-O-War at the end of the Mini Olympics. Congratulations Guys!!

Schickluna....Tug-O-Champions 1995!

The '95 Summer Games

It's Brock's own version of the Olympics; Congratulations to Kirby Court for winning the most points for the Mini Olympics!!

Gimme A B...Gimme An R...

This year the women of Fitzgibbon won the competition with their own version of the theme song from the TV show Cheers.

Wax On....Wax Off!

Every year students all over Ontario participate to raise money for Cystic Fibrosis. This year we raised over $8760 with two hours cut off last year's time!!

Bowling For $$$

Professional league....here we come!

New Rez

In September 1995 the newest residence on campus opened for business. There is so much spirit, that the only thing it's lacking is a name.

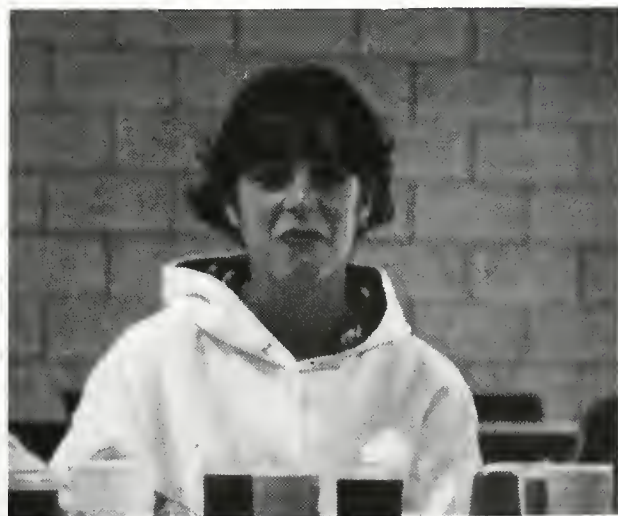

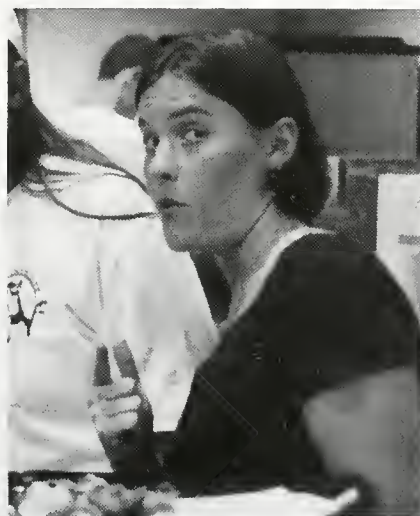

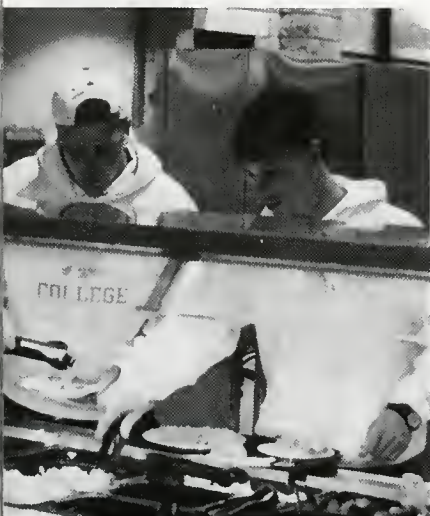

The Executive Eatery (AKA The New Caf)

1995 also saw the opening of the new cafeteria for DeCew and New Rez students. The New Caf is much nicer and the only thing it's lacking is a clock!!

Tie Me Up Baby!

It was the biggest game of Twister ever played at Brock University. Tons of people came out to put their left hand on blue and their right foot on yellow!

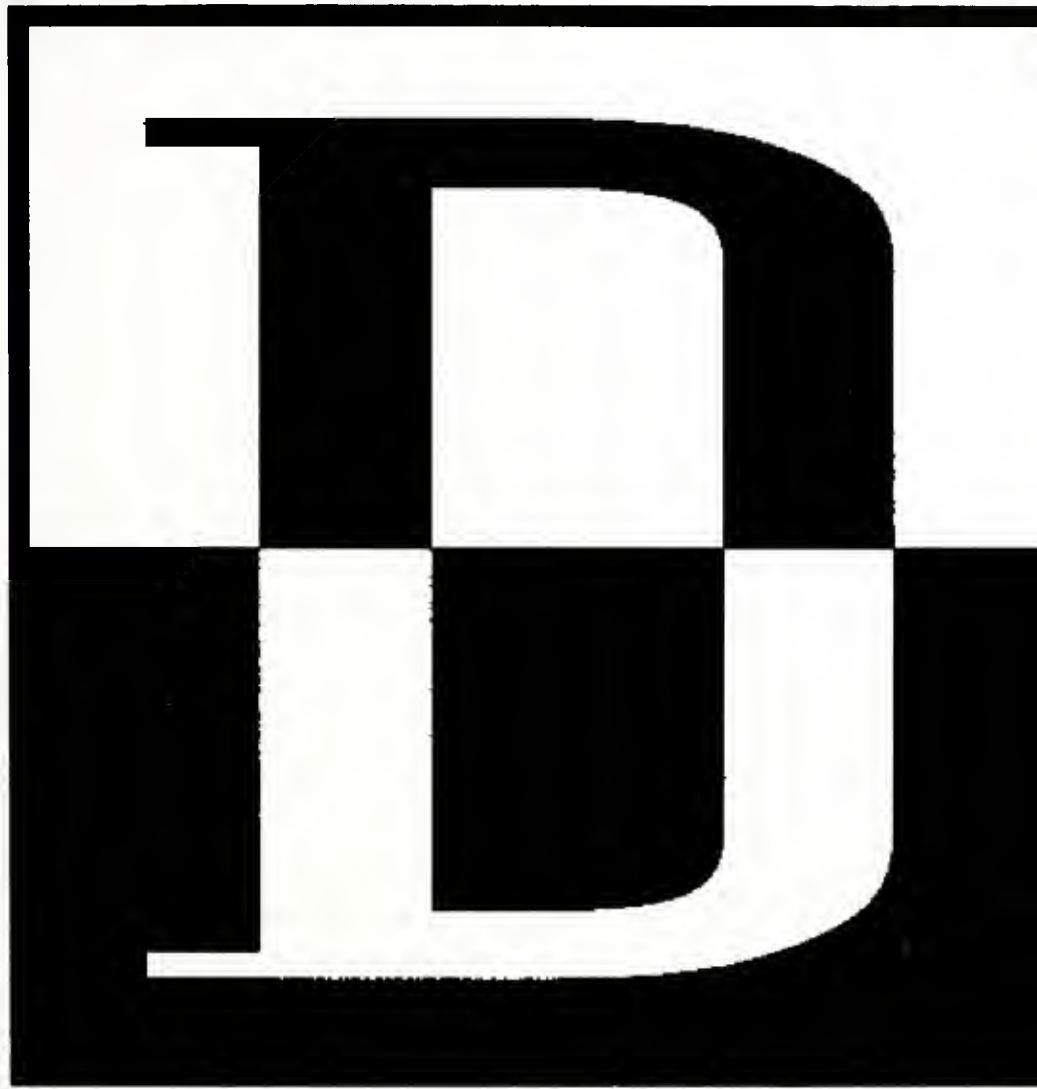

Orientation Week Standings

1. Schickluna - DeCew
2. Keefer / Fitzgibbon - DeCew
3. St. Julien's - DeCew
4. Simcoe - DeCew / Secord - Queenston

Guys, you've made this an awesome year! From our house cheer, "Keefer Club has got some class, step right up and we'll kick Schick's @$$!" to the great finish at Mini-O: You guys have made my year as a Don everything I expected and more. It took some time for the club to come together, but finally it did. So when the people ask what Keefer has, we can tell them we've got Class, Pride and Fraternity.

Andrew

Hey Pawzers!

It has been a wonderful year in Fitzgibbon House. Right from the start, you ladies proved your house spirit with your first place victory in the cheer competition. Thanks for making my year in Fitz a special and memorable one.

Love Wendy

P.S. It isn't what happens to you, it's how you handle it that matters.

When we started on this journey we were 37 unique flamingos, excited and perhaps a little scared of what the skies ahead would yield. On our adventure together we've discovered laughter, friends old and new and have learned something about each other; maybe even about ourselves. As our journey ends we find we've grown into a strong, proud family. As each of us embark on new adventures we take with us fond memories that will last a lifetime. Thanks for letting me soar with the best.

Those were the words that brought our "flock" together. It's hard to believe that 8 months have passed and that all of us have accomplished so many things.

You have made me very PROUD. Your enthusiasm, energy, jokes and laughter never seemed to fade. Someone once said "Life would be nothing without friendships" and I truly believe that we have made some friends that will last a lifetime.

Strive hard, Achieve your goals and Believe in yourself . . .

I think we, in Tubman Court, learned more about life this year by living together -- sharing life experiences, friendships and dreams -- more than any lecture could ever teach us!! Living in residence has been the key to my education, and I hope you all feel the same way. Believe in yourself and you can do anything and go anywhere. Thanks for all of the smashing memories. Love Tonya!

A great big shout out to all the cows in 95/96. From moving in to blowing out we showed 'em cows got spirit, pride, creativity, and above all, multiple stomachs. You will all always have a place in my overwhelmingly large and pulsating heart. Without you I would be all by myself here in Kirby. Carry the cow with you as you continue on your journey of life. Peace, love and the eternal cow. Your loving Don, Rodney Wilts.

Hainer Court, found in the depths of Bruce Trail Land, miles away from Brock, has managed to maintain Village Rez life to be oh so bizarre. Bagpipes are the musical instrument of choice to which we frolic through our unbelievably well maintained gardens. The Hammerheads laid back atmosphere, with an occasional bit of chaos make life out at Court 9 an incredible way to spend a year at Brock. You Hammerheads are oh so shhpiffy.

Luv ya,

For some, this was the first of many great years at Brock, for other the end of an era. If you are like most, in September you came to DeCew and couldn't imagine living HERE for two whole semesters. And now, only after a couple of heart breaks, a dozen headaches, some sleepless nights cramming, a few nights crying, a million spent laughing, far too much pizza and countless friendships eight months later -- you can't imagine ever leaving.

Memories are funny that way. You tend to forget the leaky ceiling, the noise next door, the midnight fire alarms, all the stress and anxiety over exams and you even get over that broken heart. But what you are left with are memories of house spirit and surprised that Airband wasn't half as embarrassing as you thought it would be, 'cause you were all in it together. You'll remember how bad Marriott was, and laugh about it, just as you'll laugh over the midterm you bombed from staying up the night before trying to understand the opposite sex -- and never did. You'll remember the night you drank too much, well maybe not, but I'm sure you remember the morning after.

But whether first or fifth, in DeCew Rez, we lived, laughed and learned together. Hope all your memories are fond ones!
Ken

Wow! Here ends the first chapter of the book called "New Rez". 251 authors formed the plot, provided a cast of Brocks' finest, and began the story which will be told for years to come. But here is where the cast must say good bye to its neighbours and friends who made up our community, a community aware of privilege and built on pride. What a pleasure it has been sharing this experience with you, making memories and taking heart photos that are the cherished souvenirs of our year together.

I thank you for forming our spirit of excellence, respect and commitment. And we thank our donors who led us in this spirit. Someone once said a leader is a person who determines the direction, sets the pace and applauds the spirit. The NRLS has gone beyond this, beyond light bulbs, toilet paper and vacuums, and certainly beyond 52 cents an hour: they've made sacrifices to make our family who it is.

For your pain and mine,
they paid with their tears.
For your joy and mine,
they shared their laughter.
For all our stresses, dilemmas, beefs and bouquets.

They spent their own time, energy and souls.

For all this we applaud you.
For much more I thank you.

Hey Mighty "Q"

It has been an incredible year. Once again Queenston was exploding with spirit. I would like to thank the QRLS for making this year very enjoyable for me. Thank you for all of your support. The Q-crew, you folks were fabulous, you really provided the rez with a wonderful service. Special thanks go out to all 237 mighty "Q" residents for making Queenston such a warm place to live. Freudian belief states that everyone is great in their dreams. At Queenston Residence we don't have to dream, we are the greatest.

MOST WANTED -- And so it was -- THE VILLAGE -- a place in high demand with its independent living style and friendly faces. So what if we have to clean our toilets, take out the garbage and wash dishes -- it's worth it! Nine fantastic courts make up this grand Brock Kingdom with WILD SPIRIT!! Hats off in a big way to their fearless leaders who made up the Village Residence Life Staff 1995/96. This fabulous combination of folk excelled as a team whose focus was geared towards the betterment of rez life. Matt H. with his contagious laugh; Aly whose thoughtfulness and honesty were incredible; Iain, most appreciated for his sensitivity and light heartedness; Danielle, a classy gal with a golden heart; Tonya best known for her understanding and kind words; Rodney (a.k.a. Eddy Shack/HR/Ghandi) best described as a man of few but creatively wise words; Karen, supportive and true to her "Jolly" name; Dawn, a woman of strength and independence; Vince (a.k.a. Moose) a pillar of encouragement; Matt R. (a.k.a. Screech) a pleasant chap who is always a riot to have around. Thanks to all those who made rez life an enjoyable experience. For me, the Village holds many wonderful memories and I hope that this is true for you. The Village . . . not just a place . . . but A HOME.

Respectfully Yours,

... the BROCKIN' IT 1996 STAFF

Jeff Pelletier (Executive Editor), Tim Votskos (Assistant Editor), Dave Singh (Photographer), Sathya Achia, Laura Lynn Black, Karoline Capp, Jennifer Freeman, Melanie Gramarossa, Tara Hastings, Michele Ilx, Heather Luckman, Jessica Mosher, Jenn Terry, Lesia Young.

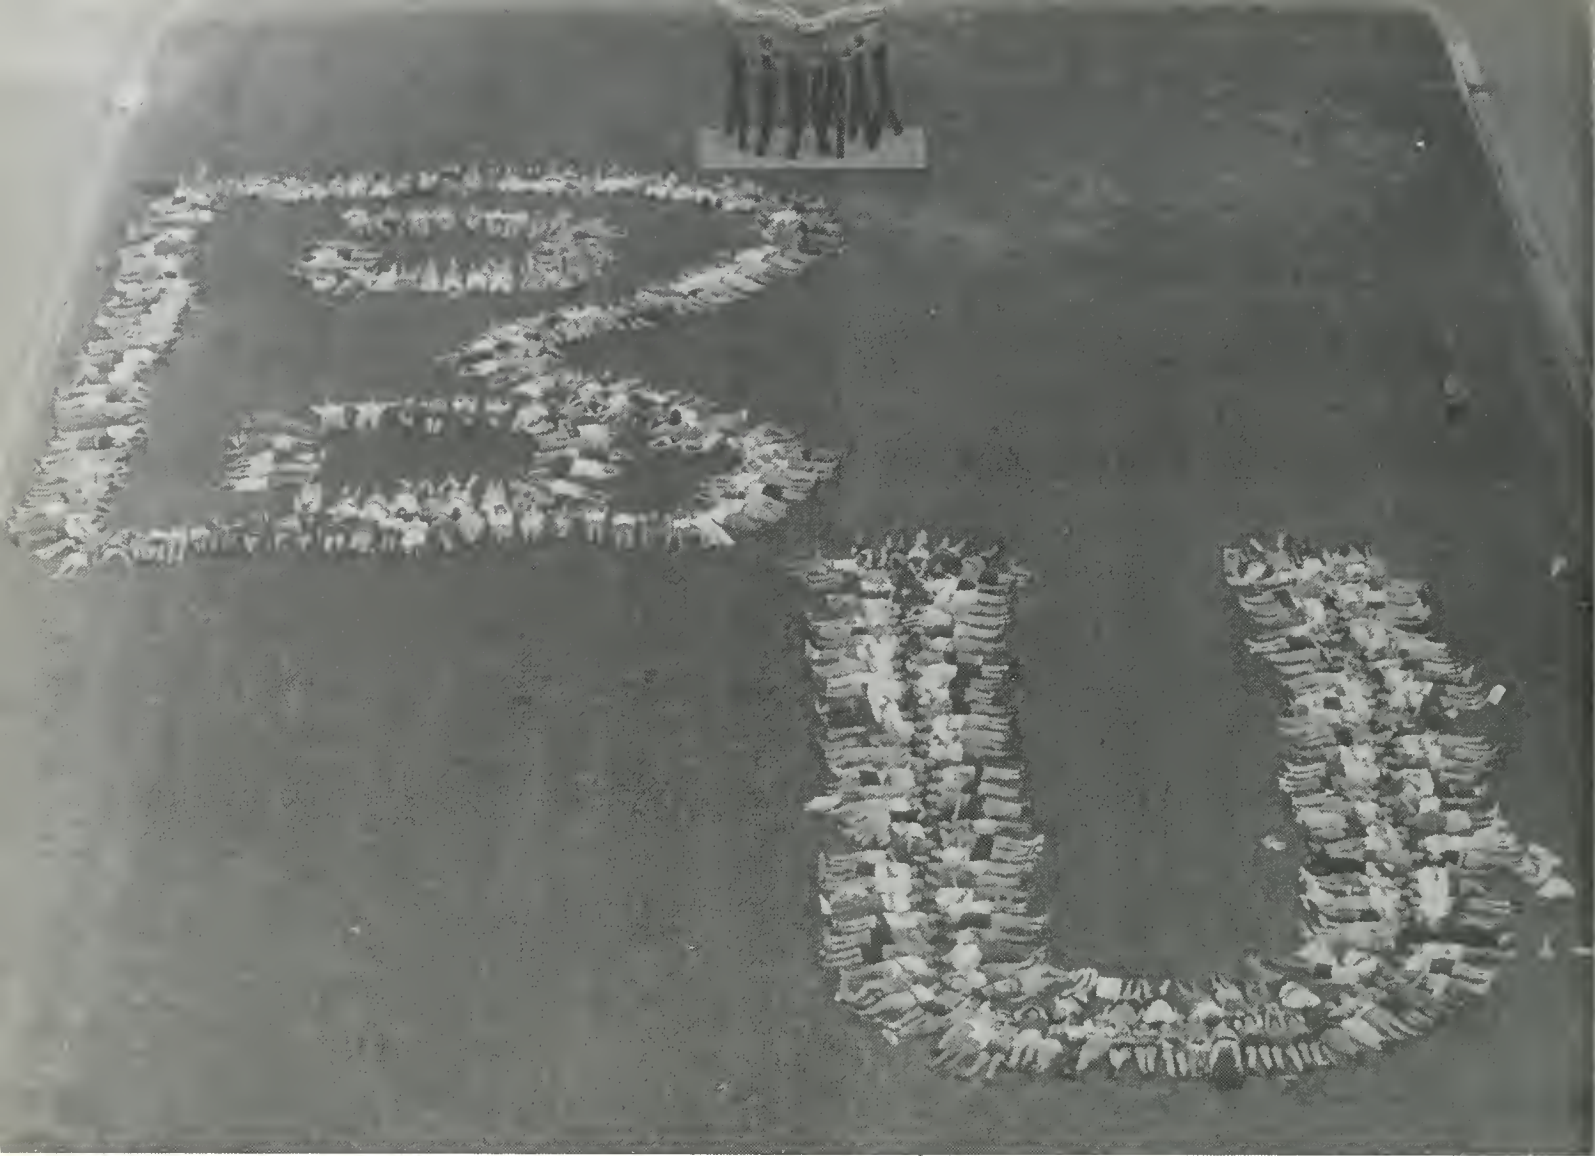

Jeff Pelletier and Tim Votskos, Editors.

Tammy Brown,
Staff Advisor

This has definitely been a year of progression, a year of change here in rez. In the forefront, we have seen the grand opening of the New Rez and new caf. And with a new residence, we are proud to give you a new yearbook with a new name, "Brockin' It" -- designed to reflect the energy, power, presence and prestige that Brock residence has on campus. However, Tim and Jeff were not the only ones who were here to convey a year of rez life: Sathya, Laura Lynn, Karoline, Jenn, Melanie, Tara, Michele, Heather, Jessica, Jenn, Lesia and Tammy were a driving force who helped bring together a new attitude for your yearbook. This is the Brock University Student Residence yearbook -- a yearbook for the students, by the students, with the students in mind. This is the start of a new tradition ... it's about time ...

WHY LIVE IN RESIDENCE?

You have the chance to live off campus for the rest of your life. Take advantage of this opportunity while you are here!
